Edith Crystal Borges

DEC 28, 1935 - MAY 28, 2015

Edith Crystal Borges also known as EDDY was born in Merida, Yucatan Mexico on December 28, 1935 to Enrique and Ofelia Gonzalez. On May 28, 2015, Edith was surrounded by loving family and friends who provided beautiful song and prayer as she peacefully went to be with the Lord.

Edith was a resident of San Bernardino since 1969 and she retired as a Psychiatric Technician in 2000. She was a member of “La Roca” choir at the Rock Church and World Outreach Center until she grew too weak to continue. There is no doubt that her first love was Jesus Christ.

Edith will be truly missed by her husband (Jesse Borges) and her loving children Edith Gonzales, Brenda Borges, Richard Borges, Jacqueline Noone, and her many loving family and friends.

A viewing has been scheduled for Saturday June 6, 2015 at 11AM to 12PM at Preciado Funeral Home 923 W. Mill Street San Bernardino, CA followed by a Chapel Service at 12PM also at Preciado Funeral Home.

In lieu of flowers, Edith would ask that donations be made to The Rock Church at www.rockchurch.com under online giving.

My sincere condolences for your loss. I remember my aunt Edith as such a beautiful caring person. She had so much love for her family and showed great faith in God. I believe in the resurrection hope and that it is only a matter of time when we will see her again. It reads in Acts 24:15. And I have hope toward God, which hope these men also look forward to, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous querida e inolvidable hermana para sobrellevar tu partida me he aferrado a lo que el libro de Job 42-5 dice "De oidas te habia oido mas ahora mis ojos te ven " por lo que creo firmemente que ya estas en la presencia del Señor cantandole con tu hermosa voz todas las alabanzas que te gustaban . Tengo confianza que nos reuniremos y lo alabaremos juntas con abue y nuestros padres. Hasta pronto

Tia Eddy!! Una mujer muy bella por dentro ❤️ y por fuera. Le doy gracias a Dios por permitirnos tener esos recuerdos fugaces pero significativos en los que pudimos compartir contigo. No puedo negarlo...lloramos tu partida. Nos unimos en oración por el dolor de toda tu familia y tus seres queridos que te amamos, le pedimos a Dios que llene de fortaleza y animo al corazón abatido. Tia estas en los brazos de nuestro Padre Celestial y cuando sea el tiempo también nosotros lo estaremos...mientras tanto nosotros proseguiremos a la meta!

Tía Edith siempre recordare tu afable persona, el respeto y aprecio que me diste. Todos esos momentos inolvidables que compartimos y disfrutamos intensamente en familia; También pude apreciar tu franqueza y tu cabal sinceridad. en Hebreos 11:13 nos habla acerca de los héroes de la Fe, quienes confesaron > Pudieron vivir vidas piadosas de fe porque miraban al futuro, a >. El Señor nos prepara para la eternidad, y todo lo que hacemos está lleno de significación. aunque esta tierra no es nuestra morada permanente, no somos gente sin rumbo. tenemos un Padre celestial que nos ama y nos dará la bienvenida en aquel hogar preparado por nuestro salvador.

Tia Eddy, siempre guapa, siempre alegre, con una mirada que decia todo!!!! Mis emociones son encontradas, una parte se entristece por su partida, porque significa que ya no volvere a verla o escuchar su risa y su alegría de vivir, y la otra parte se goza, se goza en El Señor porque cumplio la mision encomendada en este mundo y ya estaba lista para partir, lista para que cuando se pasara lista, dijera presente mi Señor, lista para mirarlo cara a cara y saber que donde esta, ya no sufre, ya no llora ni se entristece, sino se goza, salta de alegría al danzar alrededor de su Padre Celestial!!!! Solo puedo decirte que te amamos y que por siempre guardaremos en nuestros corazones tu alegría de vivir, tus consejos, tu forma de ser y aun mostrarnos tu valentia para enfrentar tu dolor y seguir adelante. No es un adios, sino un hasta luego, hasta que El Señor nos reuna de nuevo!!!!

" In The Happiness of Heaven, published in 1871, by Father J. Boudreau tells of a kindhearted king who finds a blind, destitute orphan boy while hunting in a forest. The king takes the boy to his palace, adopts him as is son and provides for his care. He sees that the boy receives the finest education. The boy is extremely grateful, and he loves the king, his new father, with all his heart. When the boy turn twenty, a surgeon performs an operation on his eyes and for the first time he is able to see. This boy, once a starving orphan, has for some years been a royal prince, at home in the king's palace. But something wonderful has happened, something far greater than the magnificent food, gardens, libraries, music, and wonders of the palace. The boy is finally able to see the father he loves. Boudreau writes, "I will not attempt to describe the joys that will overwhelm the soul of this fortunate young man when he first sees that king, of whose manly beauty, goodness, and magnificence he has heard so much. Nor will I attempt to describe the other joys which fill his soul when he beholds his own personal beauty, and the magnificence of his princely garments whereof he had also heard so much heretofore. Much less will I attempt to picture his exquisite and unspeakable happiness when he see himself adopted into the royal family, honored and loved by all, together with all the pleasure of life with his reach....All this taken together is a beatific vision for him." The boy's rescue by his father is analogous to our conversion. We come to know God's love and enjoy his presence.Just as blind people cannot see the world, even though it exists all around them, we are unable to see Heaven in our fallen condition. Is it possible that Heaven itself is but inches away from us?Edith is now seeing heaven as it really is. Rev. Ramón Celis Gamboa, friend of childhood days....
