Rashad Jamal Budd

JAN 21, 1995 - JUL 20, 2019

The son of Rupert and Rhonda Budd, Rashad was the guy everyone wanted to be like, he was a positive example at home and during his years in the San Bernardino Public schools, where he had many citizenship awards and participated in football and basketball then graduated from Carter High School. He then carried his leadership skills to Cal-State Dominguez Hills and majored in business.

He was taught by his father to, 'Fear no man, but God,' he was not one to involve himself in needless conflicts. He had a calm presence in many stressful situations. So it was a shock when he was 'taken' suddenly by gun violence. But it wasn't a surprise to learn that his courage allowed him to shield others when bullets were flying. He lived like a hero, motivating and elevating others constantly until his time on Earth was complete.

He will be greatly missed by everyone that knew him. He was the kind of young man that anyone would be proud to call son, brother, grandson, and friend.

I feel like it was just yesterday when you taught me how to drive. I want you to know that I think about you daily. You were so kind, humble and a good human being. You inspired and pushed me.

Although, we separated my love for you never changed. I will never forget any of you. My deepest condolences go to his family. I want you to know you all raised an amazing man.

Most of my memories were how energetic you and Junior's little family was. They were all quite little when me and my family moved west. My prayer for You now is to love on and hold tightly to each other through this trial and transition. This young man is gone too soon, yet his passing is not in vain. You raised him to be a protector and he did what you taught him instinctively. He will be greatly missed! 😞

I remember Rashad as a little boy, always smiling and happy. I remember him calling me the 'married lady' in Alabama. I remember him winning against a grown man in a video game challenge, where the adult was mad but Rashad just smiled. I wish I had more time with him. But, time is something we can't buy back. I will never forget July 20th, it's on replay in my mind and heart. If my family is reading this I love you, I hope we can redeem the time we have now together. My heart aches for Rashad and Jr. Rhonda, and Re Re and Ronjay.
