Dorothy Olguin

MAY 26, 1940 - OCT 21, 2020

Dorothy also known as Cokie was a lifelong resident of San Bernardino. She passed away at the age of 80. She worked many years as an Inspector, and spent many years on other ventures in her life. She was famous for her many recipes, and sewing just about anything she put her mind to. She enjoyed doing crafts with her grandchildren, and telling her life stories. She is survived and dearly missed by her grown children Doreen, Balty, Lisa and Bonnie; as well as 2 siblings. She had 12 grandchildren, 8 great grand, and 2 great/great grand. A Rosary service will be held on 11/20/20. A Celebration of Life memorial will be held at a later date. The family appreciates your understanding.

My beautiful mama, definitely one of a kind. I feel like this picture looks like she is looking back as she goes on her journey to heaven. Blessed for the time we had with you mom. ❤️❤️
