Carlos Cortez Ruiz

NOV 4, 1975 - FEB 24, 2026

Carlos Cortez, 50, passed away on February 24, 2026, in Fontana, California. Born on November 4, 1975, in Michoacán, Mexico,

Carlos lived a life defined by hard work, love for his family, and a zest for life's simple pleasures.

Carlos was a man who took pride in working with his hands and embraced every challenge with determination. His dedication to his craft was equaled only by his devotion to his family. He was a loving husband to Carmen Cortez and a proud father to their three children: Vanessa Marie Cortez, Carlos Jr. Cortez, and Matthew David Cortez. His family was the cornerstone of his life, and he cherished every moment spent with them.

In addition to his deep love for his family, Carlos found joy in fishing and singing karaoke. These hobbies brought him peace and reflected the vibrant spirit he carried throughout his life. Those who knew him will remember him as not only a devoted husband and father but also as a beloved son and brother. Carmen fondly recalls Carlos as her high school sweetheart and the love of her life—a bond that will remain eternal.

Carlo's legacy is one of love, dedication, and treasured memories. May his memory bring comfort to all who knew him.
