Andrew Joel Henning

SEP 8, 1984 - APR 10, 2026

Andrew Joel Henning, 41, passed away unexpectedly on April 10, 2026, leaving behind a profound sense of loss for all who knew and loved him.

Andy was born on Sept 8, 1984, in St. Johns, MI. He later made his way to Washington, D.C., where he worked as an IT specialist but continued to grow into the creative and vibrant person so many came to know. Eventually, he settled in Twentynine Palms, California, a place that matched his artistic spirit and love for expression.

A true creative at heart, Andy had a deep passion for art. He saw beauty in the world in his own unique way and brought that vision to life through his work. His creativity extended beyond traditional art into his disco ball business, where he combined imagination, craftsmanship, and joy – bringing light, movement, and celebration into the lives of others.

He had a special love for disco culture, embracing its music, energy, and sense of freedom. Whether working on his creations or enjoying the rhythm of his favorite songs, he carried that vibrant spirit with him wherever he went.

Though his life was far too short, Andy leaves behind a legacy of creativity, individuality, and love. He will be remembered for his artistic vision, his unique pursuits, and the warmth he shared with family and friends.

Andy is survived by his father Joel (Catherine) Henning, sister Kelly (Corey) Reck, step-brother Luke Leslie, nephew Connor Reck, niece Kinsley Reck, grandmother Ruth Henning, grandmother JoAnn Post, step-Father Charles (Julie) Dildine, step-Sisters Madison (Kyle) Dildine and Therese (Jon) Richardson, aunts Paula Audas, Jean Ruestman, Carole (Steve) Desprez, Sue (Mike) Barrett, uncles Alan (Lynn) Henning, Tony Post, and Alan (Laura) Post. Also survived by many great aunts and uncles, cousins, step-nieces and nephew, and many wonderful friends.

Andy was preceded in death by his mother Rhonda Dildine, grandfather Paul

Before he was my stepbrother, we had the most fun while I was growing up. I always saw him as an older brother, his laugh was so contagious, and one of my favorite memories was when we were jumping on the trampoline and he was helping me, do a back flip and I didn't land quite right. But he was just like, oh my gosh, are you okay? And was just so loving, but it was so funny because he didn't want me to tell anybody either, lol, we laughed about that for a long time , he also played a lot of nintendo sixty four with me Andy, I'm going to miss you so much. I didn't think I was going to have to say Goodbye this soon. I love you brother, this world lost a big light when you left. See you next time.

My first nephew. I took you everywhere with me. I love you and will miss chatting with you and seeing your creations. I always loved seeing your big beautiful smile. I loved when you would surprise me at work. I almost pulled you through the window! Love you and miss you my Drew. Aunt Carole
