“ My aunt Ene was my "surrogate" mom after my mother died. She faithfully responded to my many teen aged dramas with her loving written advice. Her love and support has meant the world to me for 73 years. She told everyone that when she got engaged she was holding me as a baby and each time she put me down to respond to her proposal, i would start crying, until Uncle Bud said, " Its sure hard to get a girl to marry you when shes got a baby in her arms."
Love to all the wonderful family . Robin
