“ On the many trips back and forth from California to Utah, my grandpa always played a tape, just one, and we would listen to that tape over and over again. As kids, it would drive us crazy, but looking back, it's a memory I'll always cherish because now when a couple of those songs come up, I'll always think of him and the car rides to Utah. It makes want to go back to being a kid and doing it all over again.

“ When I was about 7 years old I recall my next door neighbor Danny, about 20 year old, mowing his family lawn and transforming it into a a beautiful and meticulous masterpiece. He was a gentleman and I have always had so much respect for him. So difficult to say Good=bye. Your buddy Pete's little sister Angie Hanson.
