“ Jenny today was a hard day for all of us but we all know you are in a better place and I'm happy to know your right across from grandma not to far for toast and jelly that's one thing that will always be remembered.

And I will always remember that smile on your face and when uncle Louie would say funny stuff and you would laugh and say uncle Lou .

My Niece you will be missed by all and never forgotten always in our heart.

Always your Aunt Rose

“ Well I don't know where to start when I meet Jenny ray and the kids I was nervous as heck as I heard that Jenny was the crazy sister lol. When I meet her she was just the sweetest person ever. I'll share one memory I have if Jenny n frances as for many other memories I have with Jenny are crazy late night adventures that we both promised to never speak about or share cause people would think we were nuts lol.. but there's this one time we went to go fight n let me tell u these two are like pit bulls ready to attack they didn't let anyone talk down on them or there family n by the end of the night these two had maybe a few scratches n a broken nail which was all they got there gangstas with big hearts filled with gold. Jenny my sister from another mister u will forever be missed but never forgotten please tell Eli I said hello and smack him for leaving this earth to soon for me plz.. Jenny was so full of life with her laughter she could light up the room n her big eyes. If red lips and her chunky cheeks n Chinese eyes Jenny I can't believe your time here on earth is done and the good lord has called you home for you have completed what the lord promised of you to do. May the lord be with your family n friends in this time of need may the lord give everyone that has ever meet u peace in there hearts. My heart will forever be filled with great memories with you n your family you have raised some amazing children who will continue your legacy and will wear there hearts on there shoulders just like u. You were one of the realist people I've ever meet always told me that no matter what you must stay real to everyone n I must say I've always keep it real with everyone I've ever came in contact with. So thank you for that thanks for loving me m showing me there's so much more to life than to dwell on things that break u so always smile n bed happy and never judge anyone by looks or materialistic things in life cause there's more to life than those two. Smile n fly high my sweet precious O.G. HAPPY (SMILEY)

“ Jenny aka Aquanet . You would run out of the house when I would honk the horn shoes an can of aquanet saying don't leave me. We were late because i waited for you. One time I left you cause we were going to be late for worship service. First thing you asked me when we came home is did we go out to eat and i said yes. Man we're you mad at me. Those are them moments that I challenged the most. I wish I could have them again. Life happens and things were difficult but for my kids if it was 10 times harder I would gladly do it again I love my kids. It was fun Jenny now you are in perfect health in the hands of the Lord. Walking the streets of gold crystal seas. Little Grandma is making bread butter an jelly. This is not goodbye pero pasta Lego I will see you again
Love you your favorite Dad Mike
